

Information on the Passenger Endorsement Course

The Passenger Endorsement can be a 1 day course if you have evidence of good logbook skills and done Unit Standard 24089. Otherwise its a 2 day course. The 1st day will consist of a training & filling out a work book, then you will sit the Assessment test. Once you have completed this and are competent you will then head down to the A/A or VTNZ to process the rest of the application. If you have to do the Logbook Unit Standard there will be a 2nd day, you will be put through the training and work book and then there will be an Assessment test.

NOTE: A Passenger Endorsement can be pre-empted. Ring us to find out how to do this.

If you would like to know more information about the Passenger Endorsement Course, please don't hesitate to contact the office for further questions.

If you have any problems with reading or writing or with numbers, then please inform us. We need to know so we can support you. There are a variety of options we can offer you.

Who needs a Passenger Endorsement?

People who hold a Passenger Endorsement (P Endorsement) usually drive buses, shuttles or taxis, but some other drivers need a P Endorsement too.

You need a P Endorsement if you drive a small or large passenger service vehicle in a passenger service (i.e. Where passengers are carried for hire or reward).

A Small passenger service vehicle has a maximum of 12 seats (including the driver). Large passenger vehicle has more than 12 seats.

You need a P Endorsement if you drive a motor vehicle that is not being used in a passenger service but where: — One of the passengers has provided the vehicle and you are paid for driving the vehicle. An example of this type of situation is a 'Dial-a-driver' operation.

Note: If you're planning to drive a heavy vehicle in a passenger service, you must also ensure you have the right class of driver licence.

Requirements for NZTA

- Must have held a full New Zealand Class 1 Licence for 2 years (Holding an equivalent overseas licence will not meet this requirement)
- Present a Medical Certificate under 60 days old from your Doctor if you haven't done so within 5 years.

Requirements for Drivetech

- Your Licence

Note:

If you have evidence of good logbook skills and done Unit Standard 24089 you only need to do the 1 day course which includes a training on the licence and assessment .

Otherwise its a 2 day course.
