DRIVETECH now offers CBTA Training at the Invercargill Depot

CBTA is a new training and assessment option for people getting their motorcycle licence. Instead of taking a practical test at each stage of your licence, you can choose to have your riding skills assessed by an approved CBTA assessor.

CBTA can reduce the time it takes you to gain your restricted and/or full motorcycle licence.

“Training Tomorrow’s Drivers Today”

Motorbike Riding requires skills that you can only gain by spending time on a motorcycle. For this reason, you can not legally ride a motorcycle on the road using a car drivers licence. You need a Class 6 (motorcycle) licence to ride a motorcycle on the road.

Three Stages to get your licence:

Stage 1: Learner Licence

Stage 2: Restricted Licence

Stage 3: Full Licence

As you graduate from one stage to the next, you're given a new licence with different requirements and more responsibilities. Normal road rules apply at all times and you must always carry your licence with you

Requirements for NZTA

- Must be at least 16 years of age.

Requirements for Drivetech

- Supply us with your Licence, Passport or Birth Certificate.

Information on Motorbike Basic Handling Skills Test

Basic Handling Skills Test— Done by Drivetech

Before you can apply for a learner licence you must pass a Basic Handling Skills Test, conducted by an approved motorcycle riding instructor or approved testing officer.

Before your test you can practice basic motorcycle handling skills on your own private property or at a motorcycle training school.

You ring and book in with us for your test, this takes approx 1 hour. We supply the bike and the helmet for your test. This is done at a time to suit you and the assessor at Drivetech Ltd. At present this is only done at our main base in Invercargill, because it must be done on our approved course.

Once you have done that, you then go to the A/A or VTNZ and do your next stage which is your Learner Licence.
